

St Matthew's Collegiate School

Complaints Procedure for International Students

St Matthew's Collegiate School wishes to offer you an enjoyable New Zealand education experience.

If you have any complaints about any aspect of the school, please follow these steps:

Problems with subjects or teachers: Ask the Director of International Students, Mrs Clearwater, to help you.

If Mrs Clearwater is not available, you can ask your Whānau teacher(s) for help.

If you have a problem with the Director of International Students, you can speak with Mrs Sherwen, the Deputy Principal or, for serious problems, Mrs Gill, the Principal.

Problems with school friends: See your Whānau teacher(s) or Georgie Reid, the school's Guidance Counsellor. You can make an appointment with her at her office in Main House or by email.

If you are being bullied you can complete a STAND form (these are available from the school office), and your Year Level Dean will help you.

Boarding house or homestay problems: See Mrs Booth, the Director of Boarding, or Mrs Clearwater.

If you do have a problem, please ask for help while it is still a small problem. Do not wait for it to become a big problem. If you are not confident that your English is good enough you can always bring a friend who has better English.

If you still feel your problems have not been solved, you may contact NZQA or iStudent Complaints (the International Student Contract Dispute Resolution Scheme run by the NZ government).

You should ask your agent and/or your parent(s) for help with this. You must be able to show them that you have tried to get the school to act before you contact them. They will consult the school to see if anything can be done to help you.
